

Anthem Link

Save time and money with an innovative health plan

Anthem Link is a new type of health plan that gives you access to convenient, high-quality care at lower costs. Link expands your virtual care options, allowing you to:

- Access care on your time, when you need it, 24/7.
- Compare costs so you know exactly what you will pay.
- Connect with a live Member Services agent when you need support or have questions, 24/7.

Linking resources and health networks to help you access high-quality care

We carefully selected doctors, hospitals, and specialists in your area, and linked those with other networks. The result is an expanded nationwide network of premier care and resources for you, with more hours and options to choose from.

Curated network

Choose from high-quality doctors to receive video, text, and in-person care.

Wellness programs

Receive personal support from a wellness coach.

Digital tools

Check symptoms, find and receive care, and compare prices, online and on your phone.

Pharmacy benefits

Fill your prescriptions at a pharmacy or via home delivery.

Take advantage of new technology for your health

Do more with video and text

The health services you can receive through telehealth are expansive. With Link, you can do more with video and text visits.

$0 out of pocket for services such as:*

- Preventive care visits
- Virtual care
- Mental health office visits
- Retail clinics
- Preferred labs

Choose in-person visits when you need or prefer them

There are times when you want or need to see a doctor in person. You can do that with Link too, even when you travel.

National coverage when you're away from home

When you travel, Link covers care for doctors in the plan's network. If you need urgent or emergency care while you're away from home, you are covered even if you go outside of the plan's network.
