

Care designed to help you thrive

We believe everyone deserves to get high-quality care. That's why we're dedicated to making it easy to connect to the personalized care you need, when you need it – whether you're visiting a participating provider or any other licensed provider.

With the Kaiser Permanente Preferred Provider Organization (PPO) Plan,¹ you get the flexibility to see any licensed provider in the country – including both participating providers and nonparticipating providers. That way, you can choose where to go whenever you need care.

Participating providers and nonparticipating providers

You have many convenient options for getting care, with the freedom to see any licensed provider in the country – including specialists.

The PHCS Network for the Kaiser Permanente Insurance Company (KPIC) gives you access to participating providers in California, Colorado, Georgia, Hawaii, Maryland, Oregon, Virginia, Washington, and the District of Columbia.² In California, you can choose from more than:

- 270 hospitals
- 8,850 ancillary facilities
- 68,000 health care professionals

In non-Kaiser Permanente states, the broad Cigna HealthcareSM PPO Network offers members additional options for care.³

Between the PHCS and Cigna Healthcare PPO networks, you and your family can access more than one million providers nationwide.

For a directory of participating providers, visit kp.org/kpic/ppo.
