3. Acceptance of Trustee and Administrator. Participating Employer hereby accepts the trustee and administrator named in the Trust Agreement as the trustee and administrator of the Trust (the "Trustee and Administrator") with all of the rights, powers and responsibilities set forth in the Trust Agreement and agrees to be bound by and ratifies the actions heretofore or hereafter taken by the Trustee and Administrator in accordance with the terms of the Trust Agreement.

4. Trustee's Action. Participating Employer acknowledges and agrees that its request to participate in the Trust pursuant to this Request for Participation shall not be effective until accepted by the Trustee in accordance with the terms of the Trust Agreement. Trustee hereby represents that, before this Request for Participation was entered into, all information described in Paragraph 9 hereof was provided to the fiduciary of the Participating Employer with the authority to enter the Participating Employer into the Trust (the "Responsible Plan Fiduciary").

5. Benefits Subject to Provisions of Insurance Policies. Participating Employer agrees to be bound by the terms and conditions of the Trust Policies (as defined in the Trust Agreement) under which its employees become covered and agrees to pay all premiums required by the provisions of the Trust Policies for the coverages it purchases. Participating Employer understands that the insurance coverages it elects to purchase hereunder may terminate or lapse if such premiums are not paid when required by the provisions of the Trust Policies.

Participating Employer further agrees that it will communicate the terms of the Plan to all eligible employees, and will maintain such Plan in full force and effect so long as any employee remains eligible for such insurance benefits. Participating Employer hereby designates, in accordance with Section 503 of ERISA, the Carrier issuing a Policy as the named fiduciary under the Plan with complete and discretionary authority to review all denied claims for insurance benefits under such Policy and to construe disputed or doubtful Policy terms with respect to such insurance benefits and that such Carrier shall be deemed to properly exercise such authority unless it abuses its discretion by acting arbitrarily and capriciously.

8. Limitations on Participating Employer's Rights and Responsibilities under the Trust. Participating Employer's sole responsibility under the Trust is to adopt it as set forth in this Request for Participation. Upon acceptance of its adoption by the Trustee, Participating Employer shall have no further rights, duties or responsibilities under the Trust, except to the extent otherwise provided therein.

9. Disclosure of Fees and Conflicts of Interest. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, this Request for Participation shall not become effective until the Trustee, to the best of its knowledge, provides or causes to be provided to the Responsible Plan Fiduciary the following disclosures or such other disclosures as may be required by ERISA:

(e) Whether any Service Provider will be able to affect its own or another Service Provider's compensation or fees, from whatever source, without the prior approval of an independent fiduciary of the Plan, in connection with the provision of services to the Plan (for example, as a result of incentive, performance-based, float, or other contingent compensation) and, if so, a description of the nature of such compensation.

(f) Whether any Service Provider has any policies or procedures that (i) address actual or potential conflicts of interest or (ii) are designed to prevent either compensation or fees or any other business ventures or relations that may be entered into between the Plan and a Service Provider, from adversely affecting a Service Provider's ability to provide services under the Service Agreements, and, if so, an explanation of these policies or procedures and how they address such conflicts of interest or prevent an adverse effect on the provision of services.

The Trustee shall disclose or cause to be disclosed to the Responsible Plan Fiduciary any material change to the information disclosed above not later than 30 days from the date on which the Service Provider acquires knowledge of the material change. The Trustee shall also disclose or cause to be disclosed all information related to the Service Agreements and any compensation or fees received there under that is requested by the Responsible Plan Fiduciary or administrator of the Plan in order to comply with the reporting and disclosure requirements of Title I of ERISA and the regulations, forms, and schedules issued there under.
