Health benefits must be offered to 100% of eligible employees (average of 30 hours per week) in order to be subject to guaranteed issue. Sharp Health Plan has the right to reject an application if health benefits are not offered to 100% of eligible employees. Employers with 50 or more full-time or full-time equivalent employees that do not offer coverage to 100% of their eligible employees (30+ hours) may be subject to the penalties by the IRC Section 4980H(c)(2).

Dependent coverage: Sharp Health Plan will default coverage to include state-registered domestic partners and children up to age 26.*

Please check the box if you wish to extend coverage to nonregistered domestic partners or exclude coverage to dependents.

☐ No dependent coverage ☐ Nonregistered domestic partners

If you have 50 or more full-time or full-time equivalent employees, you must offer dependent coverage or else you may be subject to the Employer Shared Responsibility penalty. For more information, refer to IRC Section 4980H(c)(2).

* Every plan contract that provides that coverage of a dependent child of a subscriber shall terminate upon attainment of the limiting age for dependent children specified in the plan, shall also provide that attainment of the limiting age shall not operate to terminate the coverage of the child while the child is and continues to meet both of the following criteria: (A) Incapable of self-sustaining employment by reason of a physically or mentally disabling injury, illness, or condition; and (B) Chiefly dependent upon the subscriber for support and maintenance.

Employer contribution levels: Employee: _____ % Dependent: _____ %
Waiting period for new hires and rehires Sharp Health Plan does not require a waiting period. The employer shall determine waiting period for new hires, rehires and other eligible employees, which shall not exceed the waiting period permitted by applicable state or federal law.

Sharp Health Plan Employer Statement of Understanding
Application is hereby made for a Sharp Health Plan HMO contract. This is an application only. Issuance of a Group Agreement is subject to receipt of the first month's premium and review and approval by Sharp Health Plan. All eligible employees and dependents (if dependent coverage is offered by the employer) will be offered this benefit package.* If accepted, the employer agrees to make required payroll deductions based upon the contributions established herein for all employees who enroll in this plan. I understand that the employer group is responsible for notifying all eligible employees of their ability to enroll in the plan after their waiting period.* Sharp Health Plan shall provide the employer group with copies of the Member Handbook, Provider Directory, supplemental benefits brochures (if applicable), other required plan materials and copies of all amendments to such documents. I understand that the employer group is responsible for the prompt distribution of these required materials to enrolled employees. Small group size attestation I attest that this employer group's size is small as defined by California Health and Safety Code Section 1357.500(k). This employer group shall stay small until the plan contract date the employer no longer meets the definition. The employer group will notify Sharp Health Plan within 30 days if the group no longer meets the definition of a "small employer." I understand that if I performed an act or practice constituting fraud or made an intentional misrepresentation of material fact in conjunction with this application, Sharp Health Plan may, following notice, cancel or rescind the plan contract. I certify that all the information contained in this application is true, correct and complete to the best of my knowledge, and all participation requirements have been met. I certify that all coverage, enrollment provisions, eligibility requirements, benefits, limitations and exclusions have been thoroughly explained to eligible employees. I certify that I have read, understand and concur with the provisions of this Employer Statement of Understanding. Verification of eligibility Verification of eligibility does not guarantee payment of claims. Retroactive eligibility changes supersede verifications of eligibility. Mandatory binding arbitration I understand that (except for Small Claims Court cases, claims subject to a Medicare appeals procedure or the ERISA claims procedure regulation, and any other claims that cannot be subject to binding arbitration under governing law) any dispute or controversy that may arise under this agreement between the employer group and Sharp Health Plan, or any Sharp Health Plan-contracted health care providers, administrators or other associated parties, for alleged violation of any duty arising out of or related to this agreement, including any claim for medical or hospital malpractice (a claim that medical services were unnecessary or unauthorized or were improperly, negligently or incompetently rendered), must be decided by binding arbitration under California law. All parties to this agreement, by entering into it, agree to binding arbitration and give up the right to have such disputes resolved by lawsuit or court process, except as applicable law provides for judicial review of arbitration proceedings. I agree to give up our right to a jury trial and accept the use of binding arbitration. I understand that the full arbitration provision is contained in the Group Agreement.
